About the Federation of Master Builders

The FMB has been protecting the interests of small and medium sized building companies since 1941 and is the largest trade association in the UK construction industry.

The FMB offers advice, training, helplines and special rates on a wide range of support services to help members promote and run their businesses more effectively.

The FMB also has a network of representatives in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland delivering personal, tailored advice and support to all FMB members.
